

Herberton

HISTORIC COUNTRY TOWN NEWSAGENCY

The Herberton Newsagency business in the Historic mining town of Herberton in Far North Queensland is up for sale. Recently refurbished with the latest lotto corporate image and fresh new paint and updated fixtures it would suit an owner operator, or family with the country style attitude and laid back life firmly in sight. The Business currently trades 7 days a week, is approved with golden casket, has a Centrelink access point and is the booking agent for Transnorth/Greyhound. Prominently positioned on Grace Street the Main Business district of Herberton it has a coffee shop beside the newsagent and is across the road to the towns two hotels. In recent times the town has had an increase of tourism with the upgrading of the famous Herberton Historical Village
