RANGEVIEW LIVING

Secluded by established gardens on a large 6732 sqm allotment sits this clay brick home in Rangeview. The 4 bedroom home originally built by a local respected builder has extensive use of timber internally while the kitchen sits perfectly between the main living and family rooms. The master bedroom has an ensuite, while all the bedrooms have built in robes. The home has an office complete with timber desk and shelving and air conditioning is in the majority of the house. Externally there is a double lockup garage with an extended carport for an additional two vehicles and within close proximity is a large masonry block shed with its own plumbing. Native and an assortment of fruit trees are planted throughout the property creating privacy and screening it from the road.
