STOCKFEED BUSINESS

Time to invest in your future.

An opportunity to own your own business.

This stockfeed supply company is located in Ravenshoe on the beautiful Southern Atherton Tablelands and services a wide area almost exclusively. The firm has a diverse supply network into stockfeed, pet supplies, work wear and even has an attached vet clinic making it the premier supplier and destination point to the market. The owners unfortunately have decided to move on due to unforeseen circumstances after establishing and building a profitable business from an impeccable country style service to the large customer base.

This business needs to be investigated and the motivated sellers are open to discuss a variety of different options, including the potential to purchase the freehold property (at a new negotiated price).

Please call the agent to organise an inspection and capitalise on this fantastic business opportunity.
